
KGOMOTSO S. TSHAKA PROFILE

Job Title: Kgomotso Tshaka is the Sustainable Futures Executive of Wesizwe Platinum Ltd. She joined Wesizwe in January 2008.

She is an MBA graduate from the Gordon's Institute of Business (GIBS), has an undergraduate B.Soc Sci. degree from UCT and has attended various management programmes including Global Executive Development Programme at GIBS and Management Advancement Programme (MAP) at Wits.

She has 20 years executive management experience in strategy development, sustainability, risk management and social and labour plans specific to the mining sector. Ms Tshaka held the position of President of Lonmin Development Trust prior to joining Wesizwe. In addition she has held management and executive roles in various organisations including medical insurance and mining.

She currently holds an Executive Sustainable Futures Wesizwe Platinum and sits on various boards and committees. She is currently active in the following boards:

- Business Women Association of South Africa (BWASA) Board Member (2015 to date)
- National Business Initiative – Board Member, Social and Ethics committee (2015 to date)
- Wesizwe Platinum Board – Member Social and Ethics committee
- Wesizwe Platinum Board - Audit and Risk Committee-(standing invitee 2008 to date)
- Wesizwe Platinum Board Project Technical Committee – Wesizwe Platinum (standing invitee 2008 to date)
- Wesizwe Platinum – IT Steering committee (2016 to date)
- The Bakubung Economic Development Trust – Trustee from 2012
- Gabonewe Housing Estate – Chairperson of the Board (2015 to date)
- Keeping Children Safe (KCS) UK – Member of the Board and Chairperson of Resource Mobilisation committee. (2016 to date)

She has previously served on the boards of South African Women in Mining Association and The Lonmin Development Trust.

She has aspirations to grow in business development and have active involvement on boards to optimise her governance knowledge and contribute to strategic direction of organisations. She utilises her broad skills and knowledge in civil society and human rights initiatives and entrepreneurial activities to add value and mentor and coach where needed.

Recreationally, she enjoys leisure travelling , reading, running races and networking.
